I't:lieve that the last place I wrote you from was on board the Bullalo, on Lake Eris: The bod's Educative Delfol prophed un that we should be out but one night on the way to Buffele. Wa mite and kips highes, from ven o'clock on betarday eyeping to nine p'olak on Monday morning. But the boat is a fine one, and the fare good. We alonged two of there hours at Cleaveland, - bere the against brought us apples and peaches, though it was Sunday morning, and were willing to and a cent s deth, and would not take a ten cent piece for a nine: pence. All of , hich , as pleasant; as giving the impression that will war approaching the land of the Yankees.

From Buffalo there is a variety of routes eastward. You may take the canal and reach Albamy in about four days; or the Telegraph stage, which, with the Utica rail-road, will carry you there-in two. You may take the rail road to Niagara, get a peep at the Falls, and go on by the rail road to Lockport, and take the canal there. Or you may go from Ningara by rail -ro-f to læwiston on Niagara river, and then take the straubent to cross bake Ontatio. By this . The you have the varieties of lake, can'al and sail road travelling. You leave I wiston about six, P. M., and find yourcelf next morning lying on a small river between two high perpendisular banks. If you choose to land you will second a long flight of steps, that will tire you by the time you reach the top. The baggage and Ceight are drawn up by mechiatry moved Ly which ag at the top. This is the poil of Rochester. The steam bont people will allow you time to take a trip by the fail road up to the city and get your breakfast there, somed the custody of the public moneys. whereby they save it on board.

Returning to the boat after breakfast, you will reach Oswego that alternoon - take the canal morning, and at Uties at algebt, where you - aparrive at Albany in time to take the morning boat for New York By this rouse you arrive at New York in three days from lewiston, The route I took was this A stage was on the where in which flook a sent for Battein. We arrived there in the afternoon, waited about three house and then took the rail road to Rochester, where we arrived at hall past eight, P-M. and found a stage heady to carry us eight miles across a neck of land to overtake the canal boat a chicuit of sixteen miles. Two nights and one day on the canal brought us to Ution at helf past wine in the morning, making two days from But nie. If we had strived, as we should, before nive o'clock, and taken the morning care & Albany and the afternoon boat to New York. we had her withed as they York to there inous Bonnes will a days frod Bunklo. FLATTERY. How unjust it is to accuse you ladies of foring flattery so much; I am-quite sure that we men are quite as much addicted to it. but have not the amiable enndour to show it, as you all do. Adulation is never disagreeable when addressed to ourselves, though let us hear only-haif the same degree of it add--to another, and we vote the addresser a paragite, and the addressed a feel for swallowing it . But eten abough Nemay doubt the aircenty or the judgment of the adulator, the incense is nevertheless acceptable, as It proves we firest be of some importance to induce him to take the troub. le of thetering us. There are two things we are all willing to take, and never think we can have too much of, money and flattery; and the more we have of the first the more we are likely to get of the second, as-far as I have observed, at all events in England, where I have seen wealthexcite an allegition and respect that virtue, genius, or valour would fail to meet with.

From the Religious Sauvenir for 1830. AGRICULTURE BY C: W. KVEREST. How blest the Farmer's simple life ! -

How pure the joy it yields! Free, 'mid the scented fields !

When Merning woos, with reseate hue, Oge the far hills away, His footsteps brush the alivery dew. To greet the welcoming day.

When Sol's first beam in glory glows, And blithe the sky-lark a song, Pleased, to his toil the Farmer goes, With chesitul steps along. While Noon brouds o'er the aultry, sky,

Where the cool streamlet wanders by, He shares his sweet repost. When Twilight's gentlest shadow fall.

Along the darkning plain,
He lists his faithful match dog's call.

And sonbeams fierce are cast,

To warm the listening train, Down thousand lane young harrying feet Their sager pathway proce;

His loved ones come in juy to greet, And cleim their sire's earese Then, when the evening prayer is said,

How sweet reclines his weary head On Blumber o couch of rest! Nor doom that form his drauge alarge. Martiner Manching Man.

They can be taken with safety by persous of any age, and the feeble, the infirm, the ner vous, the delicate, are strengthened by their operation, because they clear the system of had humors, quiet nervous irritabilities and restlessness, from whatever source, and invariably produce sound

The Family Pills are an invariable remedy for jaundice, sick and nervous headache, dyspepsia, costiveness, sickuess of the stomach, hearthurn, all bilious romplaints, fevers of all kinds, and if taken at the commencement will invariably check their progress, and safe the patient from a protracted and dangerous sickness. They are invaluable in nervous and hypochondriacal affections loss of appear ite, and all complaints to which females, alore are subject. They operate as a mild and speedy nurge; and are a safe and certain remedy for worms in ehildran,...

I might publish a sugit volunte of certificates but consider it unnecessary, as the medicine will recom-mend itself to all who will make trial of it. JOHN KINGLEY

These Pills are put up in near hoves of two sizes; the small size contains 25 Pills, and the retail price is 5 cents, the large size contains 60 Pills, the price is 50 cents.
